

Second Harvest Food Bank of Central Florida: Where Do We Serve?

- Warehouse Branch locations:
Orlando, Marion, Brevard & Volusia Counties
- Mercy Kitchen, Orlando
- Serving: Orange, Osceola, Lake, Seminole, Marion, Brevard & Volusia Counties

A nationwide network of Food Banks

- Feeding America serves every county in the United States
- Second Harvest Food Bank of Central Florida is a member of Feeding Florida
- This powerful network supports neighbors every day and in times of disaster

The Hunger Picture

- 1 in 7 Central Floridians
- 1 in 6 children
- Over half a million people face hunger in our community

Second Harvest Food Bank of Central Florida: Who Do We Serve?

- 82 Million meals for kids, families and seniors.

Currently distributing 300,000 meals a day.

- 800+ Community Partners across 7 counties.
- 1000+ Nutrition education sessions offered.
- 1000+ Cooking demonstrations.
- 500+ Culinary Training Program graduates.

Second Harvest Food Bank of Central Florida: How Do We Serve?

Second Harvest Food Bank of Central Florida: How Do We Serve?

Serving the Line While Shortening the Line

- Plate Above Catering
- Culinary Training Program
- School Partnerships
- Children & Summer Feeding Programs
- Agency Relations
- Mobile Food Distribution
- Benefits Connection
- Policy & Advocacy
- Health & Hunger Strategies
- Retail Rescue
- Volunteer Services

Brevard Branch

- SHFB has operated in Brevard County since 2000
- New, expanded Branch opened in 2024
- 23,000 square foot facility
- Increased capacity
- Disaster relief

Brevard County Numbers

- 92 Partner Agencies
- Over 8.8 million meals in 2024
- 11 School Partnership Schools
- SNAP Application Assistance

Thank you!

spalacios@feedhopenow.org

(407) 697-5801