Prerequisites to granting of variance:
A variance may be granted when it will not be contrary to the public interest where, owing to special conditions, a literal enforcement of the provisions of this chapter will result in unnecessary and undue nardship. The term "undue hardship" has a specific legal definition in this context and essentially means that without the requested variance, the applicant will have no reasonable use of the subject property under existing development regulations. Personal medical reasons shall not be considered as grounds for establishing undue hardship sufficient to qualify an applicant for a variance. Economic reasons may be considered only in instances where a landowner cannot yield a reasonable use and/or reasonable return under the existing land development regulations. You have the right to consult a private attorney for assistance.
In order to authorize any variance from the terms of this chapter, the Board of Adjustment shall find all of the following factors to exist:
(1) That special conditions and circumstances exist which are not applicable to other lands, structures or buildings in the applicable zoning classification: (2) Dui dungs that are not on property will be leftered.
