Legislation Text

File #: 3274, Version: 1

Subject:

Resolution Re: Adoption of a Schedule of Rates and Charges for Hazardous Materials Special Operations Team, Standby Response, Fire Prevention & Inspection.

Fiscal Impact:

FY2021-2022 Estimated Revenue associated with these rates and charges are as follows:

Hazardous Material Special Operations	$6,463
Standby Response	$3,748
Fire Prevention & Inspection	$921,452

Dept/Office:

Public Safety Group: Fire Rescue Department

Requested Action:

It is requested that the Board of County Commissioners adopt the Hazardous Materials Special Operations Team Schedule of Rates, Standby Response Rates, and the Fire Prevention and Inspection Special Rates for the Fiscal Year effective October 1, 2021.

Summary Explanation and Background:

The proposed Schedule of Rates and Charges for the Hazardous Materials Special Operations Team and the Fire Prevention and Inspection for FY 2021-2022 remain unchanged from the prior year.

The proposed Schedule of Rates and Charges for Standby Response does change, by utilizing two references:

1) the most current published vehicle rates established by FEMA and 2) labor costs reflected by the most current collective bargaining agreement.

The rates and charges as recommended in the Resolution are projected to provide the following revenues:

Hazardous Material Special Operations	$6,463
Standby Response	$3,748
Fire Prevention & Inspection	$921,452

Clerk to the Board Instructions:

Please forward fully executed rate resolution to the Fire Rescue Department, Attn: Pamela Barrett, with copy to County Attorney.
